OF I.P.C., CASE CHARGE SHEET SECTION NO. 17.

(SUMMARY OF CHARGE SHEET)

The Bidadi police station limits Accused-1, Rajashekaran alias Nithyananda Swami, son of late Annamalai Arunachalam, has received as donation, 37 acres of land from Mr Jeevan Rao Gupta and others, and established an ashram named Dhyanapeeta in the said land, having surveyed number 21 of Kallugopanahalli village of Bidadi Hobli, Ramanagaram district, that falls within the jurisdiction of the honourable court. In the said ashram, on 07/23/2003, a Trust named as Nithyananda Dhyanapeeta Trust was created, comprising of Accused- 1 Nithyananda Swamy, Accused-4 Dhanashekaran alias Nithya Sadhananda and Jamuna Rani alias Maa Nithya Sadhananda, wife of Dhanashekaran as trustees, and the Trust Deed was registered in the office of the Sub-Registrar, Kengeri. Due to his ability to deliver fluent speeches in English and Tamil on Hindu Dharma and Spirituality, and also have them published in print and sold in public, and also by conducting Yoga, Meditations and Group meditations (ASP and NSP) Enlightenment Programs, in his ashram, the Accused-1 has been able to attract a large following of devotees from the general public. There are some devotees who live in the ashram as volunteers. Devotees having concern about their mental peace and physical well being would participate in the yoga and meditation satsangs being conducted by the accused-1, by paying the course fee. Among such devotees the witness-3 Mrs. Amala ( name changed for secrecy) and her father, witness-4, were participants in the programs conducted by Nithyananda Dhyanapeeta as narrated above and would often stay at the ashram of Nithyananda during the course of such programs from 2005 to first week of January, 2010.

The accused -1, with the intention of having sexual relations with Mrs. Amala, who was a housewife and was pregnant in January 2005 and he having learnt about this, was successful in convincing her to abort the pregnancy giving the explanation that the pregnancy would obstruct her from attaining moral and spiritual enlightenment. A week after the abortion, during the 1st week of February 2005, the accused #1, with the intention of satisfying his illicit sexual desire, sent word with the help of his personal secretary and his erstwhile personal assistant who is also the accused-5, that, under the pretext of serving food to him and cleaning his room, witness Amala should come to his room during the night. The accused-5, the order of accused-1, convinced her to visit the room, by explaining that such opportunities are only given to very selected and privileged few, and brought her to the room. Thereafter she left after closing the door. Thereafter, the Accused-1 asked the witness Amala to press his legs. He then asked her to lock the door. When she returned after locking the door, he called her near and suddenly embraced and kissed her on her lips. When the witness Amala, deeply shocked and taken aback by this turn of events, protested and tried to draw back, the accused-1, asked her whether she knew that he was an enlightened individual, that he would never do any wrong, would not create any pain for anybody, and that whatever he was doing was for her good, for her enlightenment. Saying thus, he convinced her with a spiritual explanation and converted her mind and created belief in her. Amala again protested and said to him that she was a married housewife, and he a saint, an enlightened master and therefore a physical relationship was wrong, but he did not listen to her and instead convinced her saying that “madhura bhava” or “feeling love” was a path for enlightenment, and was she not aware that he was God. Boldly saying that he was Anandeshwara (Shiva) and Amala was Anandeshwari (Parvati), he said that if she wanted enlightenment she had to listen to and obey his words. Thus he attacked her mind and took control of it and made her go into a state of total surrender. Due to this kind of spiritual talk by the accused-1, a sort of blind faith came to her and she lost her ability to think clearly. Then the accused-1, against the desire of witness Amala, forcefully undressed her and kissed all parts of her body. Placing her hands on his private parts, he asked her to rub it. Disrobing himself of his saffron robes, and without her permission, he forcefully satisfied his desire. Not caring for the trauma that this incident would have caused in her mind, the accused-1 again filled her mind with the idea that he was God and Guru, and that she was on the path of spiritual enlightenment and filled her mind with the thought that what she did now was service to the Guru (Guru Seva). Thereafter he warned her not to disclose this incident to anybody. And if she did so, it would show the Guru in a negative light, and the sin of such a terrible crime would keep her in hell for a number of lives, he said, giving her a spiritual threat and taking control of her mind, and against her will, he satisfied his sexual lust.

[stamp:]

Court of the Chief Judicial Magistrate, Ramanagara

Thereafter, from January 20th to 23rd February, 2005, at Hotel Grand Palace & Spa in Yercaud, Tamil Nadu; in December 2005 at the residence of Witness-7; at Hotel Plaza in Varanasi from January 6th to 9th 2006; in between August and December 2006 at the Bidadi Ashram; from January 18th to 25th 2007 at Allahabad during the occasion of the Ardh Kumbh Mela; in January and March 2009, at the Rajapalayam and Namakkal ashrams in Tamilnadu on the occasion of the pada-yatra for Kalpataru programs, and in between 2005 to 2009 in various cities abroad, whenever the accused-1 travelled, he would arrange for the Witness Amala to travel along with him, having in this interval, mentally convinced her fully and hypnotized her totally under the guise of giving her spiritual enlightenment. In Salem, when they stayed at the residence of witness-6 and at Hotel Grand Palace & Spa when they stayed at the room, with the help of Accused-5, he ensured that witness Amala came to his room alone, and compelled her to do service to him in solitude. Against her will he forced her to do unnatural sex (oral sex) (making her take his penis in her mouth) and, against her will, raped her. In this meanwhile, he has brainwashed witness Amala into thinking that all such acts that he has committed are for her enlightenment progress, and enslaved her mind into ensuring that she would not disclose any of this to anyone.

In Allahabad at Room No. 208 of Hotel Plaza Inn, and at Varanasi during the Ardh Kumbh Mela in his tent, and during the time of the 'pada yatra', at the Rajapalayam ashram and during his overseas travels, with the help of Accused-5 and through witness-11, he would see that witness Amala visits his hotel room and tent. Here too, against the wishes of witness Amala, he would make her perform unnatural sex (oral sex) and thereafter raped her.

In the year 2006, in the interval between the months of August and December, when witness Amala was staying in Nithyananda ashram, one day the accused-1 asked her to get alcohol. Even though she knew that consumption of alcohol was prohibited in the ashram, in order to fulfill the Guru's order, the alcohol was brought by her and the accused-1 consumed the liquor, and made the witness Amala, who has no habit of drinking liquor, to consume the liquor. The effect of the alcohol made her vomit. She then lay down in a state of dizziness. When she was in this state, he disrobed her and raped her. When she awoke, she saw herself and her clothes lying in a corner and has understood that rape has been committed on her when she was inebriated

During the dates of 31.12.07 and 31.12.08, when the Nithyananda Jayanthi would be held, the accused-1 would customarily hold a 'devi darshan' which was only for a privileged few, and where he would dress up as a lady, wearing a lady's dress including jewelry, after the main program was over. After this too was over, calling Amala as the real Devi, he has called her to his bedroom under the pretext of giving her special blessings separately. There, against her will, he committed an unnatural crime by forcing her to give oral sex.

And also 1st accused arranged Guru Purnima program during July and August 2007, and just like during Nithyananda Jayanthi program on 12/31, during this time also he called Amala to his individual room through the help of 5th accused and other personal assistants, and committed unnatural sexual offence and forcibly raped her.

In the year 2009, in between February and March, she was made to sign, along with others, non-disclosure agreement documents. She was not given sufficient time to read and understand and then sign the document. In the said document, it is said that the accused-1 could have sex, deal with tantric sex and nudity to the devotees and volunteers participating in some programs. It stated that without the permission of the accused-1, nothing should be made public. This document had been created as pre-dated by the accused-1, in order to cover up his misdeeds. Not only this, 5 books have been published by the ashram. One among them, 'Living Enlightenment' contained references to create a belief that sexual acts are an integral part of enlightenment. This literature is an effort to misguide some devotees about sexual acts.

The accused-1, suspecting that the witness-1 may have filmed his misdeeds, made him accompany him on a tour two days prior to 19.2.2010 to Seeragapadi and Coimbatore, for the Paramahansa Nithyananda Swamy Satsang. Though the complainant witness-1 complained that he was unwell and that he would like to rest at the Bidadi ashram, the accused-1 forced the witness-1 to travel with him for the tour. At Seeragapadi, on 18.2.2010, the accused-1 made the witness-1 to sit in his vehicle and questioned him for four hours, asking him if he had videotaped the activities of the ashram. Here, the accused-1 slapped the witness-1 on his cheek, and threatened to kill him. By doing so, the accused-1 becomes eligible for punishment under the Indian Penal Code sections 417, 376, 377, 506(1), 201, 120(b).

Having been in the knowledge of accused-1's wrong conducts and acts all along, accused numbers 2 to 5 are guilty of co-conspiring, aiding and abetting the crimes of accused-1.

The accused-2, immediately after registration of the criminal case, wanting to protect the accused-1 and in order to protect and shield him from the impending actions, escaped along with the accused-1 to Solan District in Himachal Pradesh, hiding him from the Law at this place, thus making him eligible to be prosecuted under sections 212 and 120(b) of the IPC.

The accused-3, Nithya Sachidananda alias Siva Vallabhaneni along with his wife, accused-5, being a devotee of accused-1, and a volunteer of Nithyananda Dhyanapeeta, and coming to know about the impending public disclosure of the accused-1, sent away about 30-35 Non-Disclosure Agreements from the ashram, in a black American Traveller suitcase, to Mysore, through the witness-8 Hanumanth, 8-10 days before 3.3.2010. As soon as the public disclosure happened, witness-8 sent the non disclosure agreements back to the ashram to be handed over to the accused-3, through witness-9, Kishen Reddy, retaining the black American Traveller suitcase with him. knowing that these Non Disclosure Documents would become vital evidence in any enquiry, disposed of them, thereby aiding the accused-1's misdeeds, and becoming a conspirator to the crimes, and is therefore eligible to be prosecuted under sections 201, 120(b) of the IPC.

The accused-4, being a trustee of Nithyananda Dhyanapeeta Trust, has full knowledge about the activities of the accused-1. That he supported these activities is evident from the fact that the accused-4 met the witness-3, Amala, while she was walking out of the bedroom of Accused-1 one early morning at Hotel Grand Palace, Yercaud, and smirked at her. He has therefore conspired along with the accused-1 in his misdeeds. He called up the witness Amala's father prior to registration of the case, and urged him to destroy all evidence of Amala's visits to the ashram, thereby becoming a co-conspirator to the crimes of the accused-1, and becomes eligible for prosecution under sections 201, 120(b) of the IPC.

The accused-5, Mrs Ragini alias Ma Sachidananda, being a resident of the Nithyananda ashram, is the wife of accused-3. She has been the personal secretary or personal assistant to the accused-1 from 2004 to 2007. Being in the knowledge of all the criminal acts of the accused-1, she has still conducted herself in a manner that would create misguided belief in the accused-1 as a saint. Upon the instructions of the accused-1, by escorting Amala to the bedroom of the Accused-1 in the ashram as well as in other places of travel, she has aided and abetted in the criminal act of sexual activities of the accused-1 on Amala, thus making her eligible for prosecution under section 37 along with sections 376, 377, 120(b) of the IPC.
